

QUESTION: What innovations can you imagine for parliamentary education?

- higher order thinking
- lunch
- everything co-designed with students
- support to discuss topical issues
- compulsory in curriculum for secondary years
- yarning circle
- disconnecting the building from the people and principles
- treasure hunt
- a silver bullet for evaluation (please)
- unlimited support such as staffing
- mandatory TPL requirement
- parliament steps program for students/people who can't access the building
- remote connections and programs online
- taking parliament to the people
- lego
- educating members
- youth voice in programs and resources
- greater reach
- separate chamber for school students
- unlimited budget
- virtual reality
- online lessons
- VR parliament
- diorama
- online education
- compulsory part of teaching uni courses
- money for all school students to come to parliament
- genuine student voice
- support and validation
- Running online activities for remote participants
- money money money
- parliament the musical
- tour bus
- bush tucker garden
- animated videos
- harnessing the power of technology
- use of QLD Globe
- education about different political parties ahead of elections
- not only restricted to school students
- totally inclusive
- adequate staffing
- more money
- Augmented reality parliament experience
- Holographic display of members of Parliament in the chamber on non-sitting days